SIXTY-FIFTH ANNUAL REPORT OF THE COLUMBIA INSTITUTION FOR THE DEAF.

COLUMBIA INSTITUTION FOR THE DEAF,
KENDALL GREEN,
Washington, D. C., September 1, 1922.

SIR: During the fiscal year July 1, 1921, through June 30, 1922, there were under instruction in the advanced department of the institution, known as Gallaudet College, 65 men and 49 women, a total of 114, representing the District of Columbia, Canada, and 35 States. This is a decrease of 2 compared with the preceding year.

In the primary and grammar department, known as the Kendall School, there were under instruction 22 boys and 26 girls, a total of 48. This is a decrease of 5 compared with the preceding year. Of the total in this department, 42 were admitted as beneficiaries of the District of Columbia.

There were admitted to the institution 26 males and 18 females; discharged 13 males and 21 females.

HEALTH.

The general health of the students and pupils for the year has been good. No serious cases of illness occurred.

The usual precautions against typhoid fever by means of inoculation and against smallpox by vaccination, in necessary cases, were taken at the beginning of the school year.

As usual, the students and pupils of the institution were required to take physical training throughout the year or to take part regularly in organized sports. Weight charts of all students were kept and consulted frequently with benefit to the students in connection with their diet, exercise, and general condition.

NOTE.—The sum of $1,500 was expended for pension for one member of the faculty of the college. This was a special gift from a friend of the institution.

REGULATIONS.

1. The academic year is divided into three terms, the first beginning on the Wednesday before the last Wednesday in September and closing on the 24th of December; the second beginning the 29th of December and closing the next to the last Friday in March; the third beginning on the following Monday and closing the second Wednesday in June.

2. The vacation is from the second Wednesday in June to the Wednesday before the last Wednesday in September.

3. There are holidays at Thanksgiving, Christmas, Washington's Birthday, Easter, and Decoration Day.

4. Pupils may visit their homes during the regular vacation period and on the above-named holidays, but at no other time unless for some special urgent reason, and then only by permission of the president.

5. The bills for the maintenance and tuition of pupils supported by their friends must be paid semiannually in advance.

6. The charge for pay pupils is $500 per annum. This sum covers all expenses in the primary department except clothing and extraordinary medical attention, and all in the college except clothing, books, and extraordinary medical attention.

7. All deaf-mutes of teachable age, of good mental capacity, and properly belonging to the District of Columbia are received without charge. To students from the States and Territories who have not the means of defraying all the expenses of the college course the board of directors renders such assistance as circumstances seem to require, so far as the means at its disposal will allow.

8. It is expected that the friends of the pupils will provide them with clothing, and it is important that upon entering or returning to the institution they should be supplied with a sufficient amount for an entire year. All clothing should be plainly marked with the owner's name. The students are required to furnish their own towels.

9. All letters concerning pupils or applications for admission should be addressed to the president.

10. The institution is open to visitors during term time on Thursdays, between the hours of 9 a. m. and 3 p. m. Visitors are welcome at chapel service on Sunday afternoons at 5 p. m.
